Branches of the U.S. Government
Fill in the Branches

Constitution

Judicial

- The Supreme Court is made up of 9 Judges.
  - Work in the Supreme Court building.
- They review laws.
- They decide cases that involve state rights.

Legislative

- Congress made up of 435 House of Representatives and 100 Senates.
  - They work in the Capitol Building.
- Make laws then send them to the President for approval.

Executive

- Lead by the President
  - Works and lives in the White House
- Carrying out or vetoing laws.
- Directing the government