

App Evaluation

Title	Total Recall
Version (if there is one or if it is one of a series)	5.0
Publisher	Zyense
Target Audience (if your opinion differ from the publisher, state that) Type(s) of software with your justification (can be more than one and when justifying, you have to convince me not just re-iterate my words)	Ages 4 and up and we would agree.
Curriculum(s) - How does it (or can it) fit into the curriculum	This can fit into any curriculum, but in the app you are creating mind maps and it can be on any subject you choose.
Possible environment(s) and Why:	This could be used at school for grand conversations, group and class projects, and story boards or at home when someone is brainstorming.
Cost: If there is a free version and a paid version, I want to know both: Are their costs for different licenses available and if so, what are they? In-app purchases	It is free.
Write a paragraph or two describing the software: Assume I know nothing about the software. There needs to be enough description so that I can visualize this software	This is an app to create mind maps or webs over any subject matter you want. You can start with one topic and stem out from there, typing anything you wish. It comes out looking like a web, that is similar to what we have done on Inspiration. You can change font color and size, color and shape of bubble.
Write a paragraph or two on your impressions of the software and possibly how you see the software being used in your class: Include good and bad aspects of the program and/or things that were well done. For example, navigation was easy, screen design was good, sound effects were used effectively, and feedback was	We like this software because it would be simple for student to use without very much direction. The only bad aspect is that it didn't have specific templates, you have to create your own mind map. It could be used in the classroom after a minilesson or after a story for the class to review what they learned, it could be used for effective and immediate... o If you disagree on anything (from publisher or any review you see....) tell me	brainstorming writing topics, it could be used for a study guide and creating graphics that could be shared.

Does the software pass?	Yes!
