

A Day in the Park

BY: Alexis Primm

Sam and Beth took their dog Sparky to the park

Sam likes to run as fast as he can.

Beth likes to run as fast as she can.

Sparky also likes to run as fast as he can.

Sparky ran so fast that he got away from Sam and Beth

"Wow, Sparky runs fast!" said Sam.

"Look at Sparky go!" said Beth.

Sam and Beth chased after Sparky

Sparky was just too fast on his four legs.

Sam and Beth stayed at it.

“We’ll catch up to him.
Don’t worry!”

“Wait up,
Sparky!”

Sam and Beth ran past Sara and Jake on the teetertotter.

"Hey there
Sam and Beth!"

"We're a little busy right now"

"Hey friends! We need some help catching our dog, Sparky." said Beth Near by Sam's friend Meredith saw Sparky running, and heard all the commotion.

"I'll help you catch him," said
Meredith

Meredith ran as fast and hard as she could.

Sparky was still too fast...

Just when Sam and Beth started feeling very tired and wanted to give up hope.

Sparky turned around and decided it wasn't fun to run from his owners anymore.

Sparky ran back to Sam and Beth, who greeted him with open arms.

"Thank you for coming back, Sparky!"

"We love you, Sparky!"

Sam and Beth learned an important lesson today at the park

...to always keep Sparky
on a leash at the park.
