

How-To Make a Hand Turkey Mini Lesson

I would use this video in my classroom during Thanksgiving time. I plan to introduce to my students transition words to use in writing such as “first, then, next, and last.” This will help students learn how to follow directions.

This would also be great to make at Thanksgiving time and teach my students about the holiday. We could read a book about Thanksgiving and I would teach my students about the history behind the holiday.