

1. Name: Edmodo

URL:

https://www.edmodo.com/?utm_campaign=elearningindustry.com&utm_source=%2Fdigital-education-tools-teachers-students&utm_medium=link

Description: Edmodo is an educational tool that connects teachers and students and is assimilated into a social network. Teachers can create online collaborative groups, administer and provide educational materials, measure student performance, and communicate with parents, among other functions.

How I plan to use it: I could use this in my classroom for my students that are shy or anxious who go unheard in traditional classrooms. It will also help me as a teacher to reduce my workload and make it easier to stay connected with my classroom and students.

2. Name: Thinglink

URL:

Description: Thinglink allows educators to create interactive images with music, sound, text, and photographs. These can be shared on other websites or on social networks such as Twitter and Facebook. Thinglink offers the possibility for teachers to create learning methodologies that awaken the curiosity of students through interactive content that can expand their knowledge.

How I plan to use it: For this online tool I can let the students have virtual field trips, project documentation, and immersive storytelling. I think this would be neat for students if they wanted to do the virtual field trips to see things right in the classroom.
