

Webster/Powtoons Mini Lesson

This assignment will be for a kindergarten class and will cover the topic of Language Arts/Reading. Students will select their favorite “Webster” book and create a slide show using Powtoons to present the books to the class. This would also be completed as a group assignment, allowing the students to share with one another what they interpreted from the books, finding common ground, and sharing with the rest of the class.