CLASSROOM RULES

- Follow directions.
- Listen while others are talking.
- Work and play safely.
- Be respectful.
- Share kindness.
- Work quietly.

In Our classroom...
we are kind.
WE ARE HONEST.
We give compliments.
we laugh a lot.
we make mistakes.
we have big dreams.
We are peaceful.
We work hard.
We are family.

TECHNOLOGY RULES

- Treat technology kindly.
- Carry computers or iPads with both hands.
- Stay seated while using the computer or iPad.
- One person per computer or iPad.
- Place devices on chargers when not in use.

INTERNET RULES

- Listen to directions.
- Only visit approved sites.
- Use appropriate behavior when online.

Acceptable Use Policy

- No cyberbullying.
- Let Ms. Blayre know when you are finished with your work.
- You may play games on approved sites once your work is finished.

PLAGIARISM, COPYRIGHT INFORMATION, AND FAIR USE

- Plagiarism is the act of using another person's ideas, information, words, sounds, music, and more, as your own.
- Copyright is the legal right of an owner of intellectual property, if something is copyrighted you may not copy it without consent from the owner.
- Fair use is the copying of copyrighted material for use such as to comment on, criticize, or parody that work. It is only a limited amount of use from the copyrighted material, such as using six seconds of a copyrighted song.

CONSEQUENCES

- Classroom rules will have a 3-step consequence, the first time will just be a warning, the second time you will write your name on the board as a warning, and the third time I will take away five minutes from your recess time.
- Technology rules will be a little more strict, if a computer or iPad is broken on purpose there will be consequences. If it was an accident or the computer's fault there will be no consequences because accidents happen. For the other rules, we will use the same 3-steps as for the classroom rule consequences.
- If there is any use of inappropriate behavior or cyberbullying you will be pulled outside and talk to Ms. Blayre about why you did what you did. If you keep using inappropriate
