

6th Grade

Science- Physics

Osmo- Newton/ Google Docs

Synopsis: Students will pair up and take turns solving the problems on the game. The one not playing at the time will record their solution to each level on the google doc. The class will solve 10 levels and then share their google docs with the rest of the classroom. Students will compare and contrast answers and discuss which solutions are the best and why.