

Ms. Evyn's Student Contract

Hello, XYZ student! I am very excited to have you in my class this upcoming school year. I have set up some rules and guidelines that should be followed in my classroom. I have also set up consequences for when those rules and guidelines are broken. By signing this contract, you are promising to do your best to follow the rules and be ready to receive the consequences when you break those rules.

Classroom Rules

1. I will be kind to my classmates.
2. I will keep my hands, feet, and school supplies to myself.
3. I will listen when my teacher is talking.
4. I will raise my hand and wait to be called.
5. I will obey all teachers.
6. I will treat others how I would want to be treated.
7. I will walk in the classroom and in the hallways.
8. I will use my inside voice in the classroom.
9. I will not play around in the bathrooms.
10. I will have THE BEST YEAR EVER!

*Other rules are possible, and the ones listed are subject to change.

Consequences: My discipline system starts by giving strikes. Strikes are given out based on rules not followed. Here is how I will be using them. At the end of every day, your agenda/calendar will have a specific color to represent your behavior for the day. I expect you to show your parents every day and bring it back the next day signed.

- Green: no strikes, followed rules accordingly
- Yellow: one strike, followed the majority of the rules, but had to be told to multiple times to XYZ.
- Red: multiple strikes, followed hardly any rules throughout the day, the student needs time to think about his or her behavior before returning to class the next day.

Examples of Possible Consequences:

- Missing recess time
- Sitting alone during lunch
- Sitting alone at a desk beside Ms. Eryn
- Not participating in class or school events (ex: field trips)
- Spending time in the office
- Warning calls to family about behavior
- Suspension/Expulsion

*Other consequences are possible, and the ones listed are subject to change.
