

November Newsletter

Ms. Evyn's Class

Announcements

- ★ Yearbook pictures will be on November 7th.
- ★ November 12th will be a half day for homecoming. Go Raiders.
- ★ Fall Book fair will be November 14th in the library from 8am to 4pm. Feel free to stop by anytime.

Reading with your Child

Reading is a very big step in the learning process. Please make sure you are reading every night with your child so that they can become fluent readers! If you need books to read with your child, contact me and I will send a book home with your child every day.

The Season for Sniffles

Flu Season is officially here. I always like to have extra clorox wipes, tissues, and germ x on hand. Any supplies would be greatly appreciated! Also, Please send your child to school with a jacket, and be aware of how they're feeling! We want everyone to stay healthy!

November Birthdays

Samantha: November 8th
Molly: November 16th
John: November 23rd

Thanksgiving Party

On November 22nd, I will be having a Thanksgiving Party just for my students and their families. Please message me if you and your student will be attending, so I know how much food to have prepared. Have a blessed Thanksgiving!
