Questions	Yes	No	Comments/ Notes
Have you played enough to know every aspect? · Did you try things that were wrong and/or unexpected		X	This app required a membership, so we could not try this app out like the others.
Did the software crash?		X	We did not experience any crashing.
Was the content appropriate? Did it meet the user's needs?	X		The content was appropriate. From what we could view, it will meet the user's needs for mainly language arts and math.
Were the screens appealing? · Color, items on screen, sounds	X		The screen was appealing. The colors were all bright and bold, so it made it more fun.
Is it easy to navigate?	X		This app is very easy to navigate. It was not overwhelming with information.
Is it easy to learn?	X		Homer is easy to learn because you can choose what the child already knows to help decide what they work on.
Does the user need supervision to use		X	All of the content that we found was appropriate for children to be on.

If the App required a response, was it appropriate? (right or wrong)	X		When giving a response on the app, it was appropriate and uplifting.
Were there bells and whistles? · If so, do they enhance instead of detract? · If not, should there be?	X		There were bells and whistles when you clicked on something. We thought it enhanced the app because it makes the app more appealing for the children.
Did you like using the App?	X		We enjoyed this app because it was very creative and the music and sounds were very exciting.
What was the cost? · Was there a "lite" version o If so, was it enough		X	The app itself was free, but to create an account you had to pay $9.99 a month or $59.99 a year.
Were there in-app purchases? · If so, what were the additional costs?	X		The app itself was free, but to create an account you had to pay $9.99 a month or $59.99 a year.
How does it compare to other apps that do the same?	X		Was harder to navigate only because of the payment.

Additional Comments	X	We thought this might be a good app to use if we could view it more in depth

Questions	Yes	No	Comments/ Notes
Have you played enough to know every aspect? · Did you try things that were wrong and/or unexpected	X		Was hard to get to know the app

Did the software crash?		X	Did not crash
Was the content appropriate? Did it meet the user's needs?	X		Works well for teachers who are good with apps like these and want to plan more detailed days that they cannot use a calendar or planner for.
Were the screens appealing? · Color, items on screen, sounds		X	The app was boring, but we think that is because it is aimed more for teachers than it is for the students.
Is it easy to navigate?		X	The app was very confusing, especially at first.
Is it easy to learn?	X		Once we played around a little bit, we could catch onto how to work the app. However, we still didn't like it that much because it was confusing and had way too many steps.
Does the user need supervision to use		X	This app was designed for teachers.
If the App required a response, was it appropriate? (right or wrong)		X	It did not require a response.
Were there bells and whistles? · If so, do they enhance instead of detract? · If not, should there be?		X	There were no bells and whistles.

Did you like using the App?		X	This app was okay, it just was a little confusing. The parts I could figure out I would rather use Google Calendar or a planner for.
What was the cost? · Was there a "lite" version ○ If so, was it enough		X	This app was free.
Were there in-app purchases? · If so, what were the additional costs?		X	There were no in-app purchases.
How does it compare to other apps that do the same?			We prefer Google Calendar over this app. Both apps essentially do the same thing, but PlanBoard just applies extra, unnecessary steps.
Additional Comments			Neither of us would use this app. The creator of the app had the right idea, but it was more complicated than it needed to be.
