

Mrs. Little's Acceptable Use Policy and Classroom Rules

These rules will help ensure we can have a safe and fun-filled year. Please read the document and sign your name to the signature page.

Classroom rules:

1. Be kind always!
2. Never be a bully-tell a grown up if you see someone being bullied.
3. Follow directions the first time.
4. Raise your hand before speaking.
5. Keep your hands, feet, and all other objects to yourself.
6. Do your best every day.
7. Make your dear teacher happy.

When using electronics:

1. Use clean hands.
2. No food or drinks near electronics.
3. Handle electronics with care.
4. Use your own headphones.
5. Put away devices when you finish using them.

Internet behavior rules:

1. Cyberbullying is never tolerated.
2. Use kind words and appropriate language.
3. Do not add or delete apps or programs.
4. Use only the apps that are assigned.
5. Only surf the web for educational purposes-ask before going to a website.
6. If you see something inappropriate, tell me immediately.

Failure to follow rules will result in consequences:

1st offense- Rule reminder.

2nd offense- Lose 5 minutes of recess.

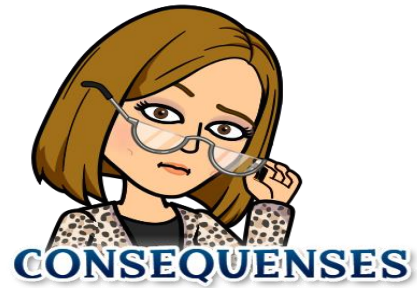

3rd offense- Phone call to parent.

4th offense- Visit to the Principal's office.

*Misuse of electronics or violation of rules may result in loss of privileges, depending on the offense.

*Cyberbullying will always result in loss of electronic privileges; this is the only warning.

Rules and consequences are subject to change at any time at the teacher's discretion.

Plagiarism, Copyright information, and Fair Use:

When doing projects, be sure to use your own work. Using someone else's work is called plagiarism. Plagiarism includes using someone's pictures, quotes, and even ideas. If you want to use someone else's work, make sure to give the original author credit. After all, it is their work.

Copyrighted information is protected by law. Fair Use protects students by allowing the use of copyrighted information for educational purposes.

Plagiarism will result in a zero for the assignment.
