How to Vet a source Mini Lesson

Grade level/ Audience: mid level or higher

Group size: individual

Curriculum topic: any that involves research

Tools (be specific): Book " But I read it on the internet" and computers.

Synopsis of what you are doing including how you are using the technologies:

The book is good for teaching any age level the importance of making sure you have a good source when citing a website. The students will use the chart that is in the book to practice finding a reputable source on the web.