- Title: Wikids Talking Encyclopedia

- Version: 3.5

- Publisher: KidkeDoo Ltd.

- Target Audience: 4+, and we agree—it can be used very well by any ages and will be very appropriate.

- Type: Tools—you can use this to research, listen to, or read lots of things.

- Curriculum: This would work in ANY curriculum. It has lots of variety and leaves your options open.

- Possible environments and why: This could be used in any environment from centers to quiet time or a research topic. It offers a wide variety of topics to learn about and discover.

- Cost: Lite version is free, full version is $4.99.

- Summary: This software is very versatile. Students get to pick and decide what they want to learn about—it is a broken down version of an encyclopedia and students can even have material read to them.

- Impressions: This app is incredibly versatile and could be used in a variety of settings, by students from all different levels. It could be used for any subject under the earth and could grow students' curiosity.

- Pass/Fail: Pass! We really like this app. It is pleasing and conducive to all kinds of learning.