

App Evaluations

Title	Google Docs
Version	1.2019.38202
Publisher	Google LLC.
Target Audience	Age rating is 4 and up but the user would obviously need to be able to read and write. Target audience is aimed at teachers, students, anyone who has use for creating and storing documents. Ages from 10 to 100.
Types of Software	Tool
How software fits into curriculum and classroom environment	Teachers can use this app to create assignments and post it in a class specific folder where all the students in the class can see. Students can complete assigned homework and keep up with important notes or information.
Cost	Free.
Software description	The good thing about google docs is it saves the information that the user inputs to a server. It is accessible from any device as long as the user is connected to the internet. The user can edit, create, and share documents on the go and in real time with people connected to the app. The user can also search in google right within the app without ever leaving google docs.

App Evaluations

Possible Implementations	Teachers can use this app to assign homework, projects, grade papers, and publish information. Students can use to take notes, annotate articles, and complete homework.
Does the software pass APPS?	Passes with an A.