Subject: Language Arts

Grade: 2nd

Tools: iMovie & YouTube

Standards: RL.2.5 Describe the overall structure of a story, including describing how the beginning introduces the story and the ending concludes the action. RL.2.5 In a novel, the early chapters often establish the setting and provide foundational descriptions of characters who develop across the following chapters. In a play, one scene follows another as the action unfolds. In a ballad, each stanza tells the next part of the story. When writing or discussing stories, dramas, and poems, students should refer to specific chapters, scenes, or stanzas when citing evidence to support their analysis.

Synopsis:

Students will get one month to read a chapter book. Within that one month, students will have to make an iMovie that includes the beginning of the story, the setting, the characters, and the theme of the story. After students have created an iMovie about their book report they will upload the iMovie to YouTube.
