Did the software crash?		•	The software did not crash or have any issues.
Was the content appropriate? Did it meet the user's needs?	•		We believe that it would be best used with second grade and above. It met all of the needs for teachers, and it would be a fun activity for students above the level of kindergarten or first grade if the teacher were to design a scavenger hunt or something similar. The teacher could use this for a variety of things with

Evaluating Apps

			This app is a lot faster than some of the other scanners we have used. It also has a lot of different options that you can create QR codes for. For example, we created a code for our phone numbers.
Additional Comments		<ul style="list-style-type: none">•	There were ads that had nothing to do with the app. The ads were there for the app to be making money some way. The ads switched out every few minutes, and there were no inappropriate ads that came up.

Child Development and Learning <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Subject Matter appropriate? • Educational Focus? • Provides for Learning New Content? • Follows Appropriate Teaching Sequence? 	•		This app is appropriate. There are many learning opportunities that you can have when using this app. Teachers can create codes for different websites, have a scavenger hunt, and many other things. This app provides students to learn in a new fun way.
Individual <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Does it match individual's abilities? • Does it meet individual's needs? 	•		This is something we would use in Second grade and above. Individuals would just need to be able to hold up the ipad to scan items. They might also need to insert information to create a code, but students know how to type. This is an app that all students should be able to use and it fits all of their needs.
Social/Cultural <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bias? • Commercialism Comments 		•	There is nothing bias in this app. It is a very basic scanner that doesn't try to persuade users.
