| Did the software crash? | | × | |
| Was the content appropriate? Did it meet the user's needs? | x | | Yes, if they put the appropriate information on the flashcard. The teacher would need to make sure they have the right answers. |
| Were the screens appealing? • Color, items on screen, sounds | | X | It is very plain, there is nothing special about any of the screens or any of the decks. |
| Is it easy to navigate? | × | | |
| Is it easy to learn? | X | | |
| Does the user need Supervision to use | X | | Teachers need to hold students accountable for putting the correct information on each flashcard. Teachers may need to walk around the room to insure this. |

Evaluating Apps

| If the App required a response, was it appropriate? (right or wrong) | | × | |
|--|---|---|---|
| Were there bells and whistles? • If so, do they enhance instead of detract? • If not, should there be? | X | | You can add your own phots and edit them. You have to choose a picture/diagram that already has the information. You can NOT add the information in app. (Add text to the picture or diagram) |
| Did you like using the App? | X | | |
| What was the cost? • Was there a "lite" version ○ If so, was it enough | X | | Yes, there was a free version. Everything we needed to do, was free. After 18 flash cards, you have to upgrade to full access. It does not have a Quiz section. You can only mark flashcards you need more help with, the app itself does not keep showing you those like Quizlet. |

Evaluating Apps

| Were there in-app purchases? • If so, what were the additional costs? | × | Full Access Monthly: $5.99 Full Access Yearly: $25.99 |
|--|---|--|
| How does it compare to other apps that do the same? | X | On apps like Quizlet, you cannot add photos without paying for their subscription. On Flash Card GO, you can add photos without having to upgrade. |
