

Integrated Movie

Students will be reading the book "Hatchet" by Gary Paulson.

They will work individually to create a book jacket for presenting.

After they have made the jacket they will present the final project in front of the class.