

Ms. King's Acceptable Use Policy

★ Classroom Rules:

1. Be respectful of everyone in this classroom.
2. Be prepared.
3. Raise your hand when you have a question.
4. Be considerate of those around you.
5. Do your best, always.

★ Technology Rules:

1. I must be in the classroom for you to get an iPad or computer.
2. You must be in your desk when using an iPad or computer.
3. You must sign out your device on the sign out sheet.
4. Do not try to access devices you have not signed out.

5. Don't turn up the volume unless you have headphones.

Internet Rules:

1. Stay on the websites that I have given you permission to be on.
2. Do not use the privilege of being on the internet to be mean to others.
3. Do not pull up any inappropriate images/videos.
4. You may get on the permitted websites when you have finished all of your work.
5. You should not be on the internet while I am giving instructions.

Plagiarism, Copyright Information, Fair Use:

For any information you obtain from the internet, someone has already created it, it is their work. You must give them credit for their work or that is considered cheating and there will be penalties for that. You can't research something and write it down or claim it like it is your own unless you own the copyrights to that information you are using.

Consequences:

If you choose to not follow the rules listed above, there will be consequences. The first time will be a verbal warning. The second time will be a call home. If the problem is not fixed after three times, you will receive a write up and will be sent to the principal's office.

Please read over these rules, both parents and students, and please sign below to let me know that we have an understanding of what is expected for the year ahead!
