

Educational Software Write-up

Title- Shadow puppet

Version- 2.8.4

Publisher- Seesaw Learning Inc.

Target Audience- This app is aimed towards students over the age of 7 and teachers in an educational setting.

Curriculum- This app could really be used for any subject you desire. You could use it to create and integrate presentations for any subject, or even in a flipped classroom setting, the video and voice would be great. Students could use this for projects with presentation aspects. Students get to utilize their creative side and knowledge to create new content.

Cost- The app is free and there were not any in-app purchases.

Description of software- Shadow puppet is used to make video slide shows with added abilities like voiceovers and text. Presentations may be up to 30 minutes long and contain up to 100 images or less. Students are given various options of image sources from their camera roll. The library of congress, etc. This app was created with an educational use in mind so it is very suitable for the classroom. Although, students can search for resources online, the filters are strong so there is little worry about access to inappropriate content.

Impression of software- This app could be great in a classroom if utilized correctly. Students who like to involve their creative side will love this app for class work and projects. They could even tell stories using it.

Does the app pass? Yes.