Additional Information

Plagiarism is taking and/or using someone else's work and not giving them credit or citing them. Plagiarism will not be tolerated in our classroom. Copyright is the legal right to someone's own work. We may only use their work if their written permission is granted and we cite them. Fair use is a law that allows us to quote someone else's work without requiring a copyright form. It can only be used for specific purposes.

Consequences for Breaking the Rules

We use behavior clips in our classes. We all start on green each day. If your child stays on green, he/she had a good day. If he/she is on yellow, they had to clip down for breaking a rule. Orange means they received a 2nd warning for their behavior. Red means he/she received their 3rd and final warning resulting in a visit to the principal's office and will receive a note home explaining what happened. A parent signature will be requested.
