

- Name: Hopscotch
- Version: 3.32.1
- Publisher: Hopscotch Technologies
- Target Audience: 4+ but we agreed this application was better for 2nd grade and up
- How does it fit into curriculum: It helps students learn to code and program.
- Possible Environment and Why: This application would be good for teaching coding and programming.
- Cost: It is free to download with an in app purchase of $7.99 per month subscription fee.
- Description: Hopscotch is an application that teaches coding and programming. It has infinite downloads to choose from. There are tutorials and instructions. You can create games, stories, and art with this application.
- Pass or Fail: Pass because it was easy to use, it is useful, and it has directions and tutorials.