Additional Information:

Plagiarism is using someone else's work or idea's and sayings it is your own. This is considered stealing and will not be tolerated. Make sure to always give credit to the creators.

Copyright is a way for the creators to protect their literacy or artwork for a short period of time by allowing them to state what other people can do with the work.

Fair use is an exception to the rules of copyright that gives us the right to use small parts of something that another person has created without breaking any laws.

Consequences for breaking our rules:

1st Offence – Verbal Warning

2nd Offence – Behavior tickets will be taken away

3rd Offence – Sent to office

There will a no tolerance policy when it comes to disrespecting the teacher.

The teacher will show the same respect towards the students.

Please read, sign and date each page and return to school
