

House Acceptable Use Policy

What you might include...

Setting guidelines for your child to follow is very important. Not only will it teach them responsibility, it will also show them that you trust them to follow the rules. Here are a few categories that you may want to include.

House Rules:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.

Rules for Using Technology

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.

Rules for Internet Safety

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.

Punishments

Here would be a great place to let your child know your policy on punishments. Whether you give so many warnings or go straight to punishment, it is important that they know the outcome if they break one of the rules.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.

Contract

After your child has read the policy for your household, go over everything to make sure that they understand. Explain that this is a contract between you (the parents) and them (the child). Follow up by having them read, sign, and date below.

I agree to follow all of the rules listed above. I understand that by signing below I am agreeing to each part of the household policy. I understand that if I break any of these rules, I will receive one of the punishments listed above.
