

Brownie's Big Surprise

Written by Kelsey Plunkett

Photos by Kelsey Plunkett

This morning, I woke up to some exciting news!
My humans said I would get a surprise this afternoon!

The last time my humans got me a surprise, I got a cupcake. I wonder what I will get today?

Maybe they are taking me on another adventure? Like on vacation!

Or maybe they are taking me back to school?
I do enjoy roaming the halls.

Or what if they bought me a new toy?

I would love to go on a drive somewhere. Anywhere outside of the house is always a treat!

My humans brought a box into the house with something moving inside. What could it be?

It smells and makes weird noises. Do I eat it?
No, it tastes nasty.

I'm not sure if I like this surprise, it's not very nice.
It bites me and tries to attack my tail.

After chasing each other all night, my surprise calmed down and went to sleep.

I guess this surprise is ok after all.
I just might keep it.