- 3.) Computer/Wixie

- 4.) Synopsis: The past few days we have been reading and discussing a literacy text. For today's lesson over the book, the students will create a "scrapbook" of a specific character of their choice in the current text. They will use the website Wixie on the computer and when they are finish they will send it to me through their school emails. This will help know what the students know about the character and how they interpret them as well.
