- Tuesday: No Homework
- Wednesday: Science Homework: Write reflection on what you learned about the water cycle.
- Thursday: Science Homework due
Friday: Social Studies essay due.

LOOK AT OUR WORK!

Students have been learning about evaporation through a class experiment. They have measured water levels in different jars to see which variables make the water evaporate the fastest. Here is what they have come up with!

Inspirational quote of the week:

"I think it is possible for ordinary people to choose to be extraordinary."

-Elon Musk
