Clips

I used the Clips app to create a how-to for students to learn how to set up a binder for their classes. This app was very user friendly. I will use this app again in my class for creating other how-to videos for my students.