

I forgot my backpack at home.

CAUSE- the thing that makes other things happen.

EFFECT- what happens preceding the cause or the results of the cause.

IMPLICATIONS- the conclusion that can be drawn from something even though it is not always apparent.

- I received a zero on my homework.
- My grade dropped four points.
- Implication
- Effect
- I did not have a lunch today.
- I was very hungry all day.
- Implication
- Effect
- I was not prepared for school day.
- My teacher got on to me because I was not prepared to learn.

- Implication

- Effect

- Cause