Have you played enough to know every aspect? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Did you try things that were wrong and/or unexpected 	x		We created codes and scanned codes.
Did the software crash?		x
Was the content appropriate? Did it meet the user's needs?	x
Were the screens appealing? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Color, items on screen, sounds 		x	The was nothing super extravagant about the app. There were not many colors but at the same time it was not super boring and plain either.
Is it easy to navigate?	x
Is it easy to learn?	x		Everything was labeled and under categories that made it easy to use.
Does the user need Supervision to use		x	There is not much you can do on this app except creating or scanning a QR code. When creating a code, the user can only use what already exists, so the student does not create something from scratch.

Evaluating Apps

If the App required a response, was it appropriate? (right or wrong)		x
Were there bells and whistles? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If so, do they enhance instead of detract? • If not, should there be? 		x	This app is really plain but at the same time it does not need any kind of bells and whistles because of how simplistic the app is..
Did you like using the App?	x
What was the cost? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Was there a "lite" version <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ If so, was it enough 	x
Were there in-app purchases? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If so, what were the additional costs? 	x		You can pay $0.99 to remove the ads, however the ads are on the bottom and very small, so they do not seem to be much of a problem.
How does it compare to other apps that do the same?			There is another app called QR Code Generator and Creator that is similar to this one. It has a lot more bells and whistles than inQRedible. Users are able to design what the QR code looks like and share them. Both apps are free.
