Synopsis

The students will compare and contrast texts in different forms or genres on a HyperDoc created that allows them to work in groups of five to compare and contrast the four texts we have read so far in class. These texts are: Hatchet, All Summer in a Day, Shakespearean Sonnet 155, and Old Sultan. The students will work together in their HyperDoc to fill out information of how these texts compare and contrast with one another. Once they have filled out all the comparisons and contrasts that they can find, the students will create an infographic using easel.ly in their groups (groups of five) that summarizes the differences and likenesses within the genres.
