

Three States of Matter

Subject: Science

Grade: Third

Tools: Inspiration and PowerPoint

Synopsis: Students are going to create an outline of their PowerPoint project using inspiration. The student will create a map on inspiration that discusses the states of matter. Students will be doing research about the different types of matter the create any type of map on inspiration. The map the students create will be their guide for their PowerPoint presentation. The PowerPoint must contain both graphs and content information text.

